

PRETTY MISS MILLER'S DEBUT AS AN ACTRESS.

Society Friends
Applaud Her Appearance at Park Theatre.

From prominence in church work and fame as a member of the Brooklyn Dramatic Society, Miss Jeanette Miller, whose father, Walter F. Miller, resides at 19 Spencer place, has stepped to the professional stage. Her appearance as Orange Blossom in "The Girl in the Red Velvet Gown" was witnessed by a host of her society friends at the Park Theatre last evening. Miss Miller is strikingly handsome and has proved her dramatic ability. For this season she will remain a member of the Baker Stock Company.

MISS JEANETTE MILLER.

HUNTED LIONS LIKE ROOSEVELT

But Boy Nimrods Found
None in Mount Vernon.

Joseph, Fero and Louis Farrow, two lads aged fourteen and fifteen respectively, went to Mount Vernon yesterday armed with rifles, revolvers and razors, in hopes of getting a shot at wild animals of the wood.

Night overtook the boys before they had a chance to fire their weapons, as they sought shelter in a hallway, where Detective Atwell found them hungry and nearly frozen to death. Fero lives at 257 Mott street, Manhattan, while Farrow lives at 117 North Seventh street, Brooklyn.

When the boys were captured they told the detective that they had been reading about Vice-President Roosevelt's experiences in the Far West, so they decided that they would start out in search of mountain lions. Fero had a rifle, a razor, an umbrella and a box of bullets, while Farrow was armed with a (4-caliber revolver, a razor and a box of bullets.

Last night the lads hid themselves in the hallway of the George D. Ferris building, at South Sixth avenue and Third street, waiting for morning to renew the hunt. The night was cold, and the hallway offered little protection from the wind. Detective Atwell passed the building about 9 o'clock, and as he neared the side entrance he heard some one crying. Stopping to investigate he found the lads in the hallway.

The detective took the youthful prisoners to the station-house, where they were given something to eat and a place for the night. They were allowed to start for home and remain there.

TIRES OF WORLD AT 12 YEARS.

Expresses a Wish to Be come a Sister of Charity.

"Judge, I want you to send me to the Catholic Protectors," said twelve-year-old Mary Deighton to Magistrate Brenner in the Adams street court, Brooklyn, today.

"I want to be a nun, or a Sister of Charity. I am tired of the world."

The Magistrate looked over his glasses at the earnest face and serious eyes of the girl, who at twelve was tired of the world, and finally said:

"Your wish shall be granted. I will commit you to the care of the Protectors as you request."

Although not yet in her teens, Mary Deighton has had more varied experiences than many three times her age.

Five years ago her mother died. The girl was unruly. Her relatives intended to send her to an institution. A cousin, Mrs. Mary Adams, of 68 Fourth place, took a fancy to her and gave her a home.

A year ago Mary tried to commit suicide by taking Paris green. Her life was saved after a hard fight.

Four times since then she has run away. Saturday she presented herself at the office of the Children's Society and said she wanted to be a nun. Agent Coschinn recognized her at once, but while investigating her history kept her at the Children's Shelter.

Last Thursday the girl ran away from Mrs. Adams' house and nothing was known of her whereabouts until she was found at the Children's Society. She refused to explain where she had been.

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement. We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."

J. E. DUFF, Princeton, Mo.

is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find it the appetite stimulant, and it cures all the troubles that come from a weak and emaciated system. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.
